HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY AND PROCEDURE

Policy code	HSPP-001	Version 2.3	Effective date: January 2021
-------------	----------	-------------	------------------------------

St Basil's RTO strives through a process of continuous improvement to fully integrate health and safety into all facets of its operations and activities. St Basil's RTO promotes a proactive health and safety management philosophy based on effective communication and consultation, the systematic identification, assessment and control of hazards and the encouragement of continuous improvement and innovation.

St Basil's RTO has in place policies and procedures to ensure that staff, students and guests are provided with a safe environment in accordance with the Work Health and Safety Act (2011).

This policy applies to all employees, students and contractors. On entering the workplace of St Basil's RTO, visitors, clients and customers will be required to comply with this policy.

RESPONSIBLE PARTIES

Members of Management are held accountable for their performance in managing Work Health and Safety in areas under their control. It is St Basil's RTO's policy in the allocation of resources that a high priority should be given to items with significant WHS implications. WHS issues must be included in the meeting agendas at regular intervals and agenda items tabled in meeting minutes. While the College Manager has the final responsibility for the WHS of staff at, all managers are responsible for planning, implementing and maintaining WHS standards and practices in all areas and activities under their control.

POLICY & PROCEDURES

All staff are responsible for enacting this policy and it is their responsibility to safeguard the welfare of, St Basil's RTO and to provide a healthy and safe environment for, their fellow staff members, students, visitors and contractors and to ensure that the standards and practices adopted are in conformity with statutory requirements and the provisions of St Basil's RTO's policy.

Expressly to:

- Lead by example in relation to work health and safety standards and awareness.
- Facilitate requests by staff to elect Work Health and Safety representatives and / or form a Work Health and Safety committee with appropriately qualified staff (ensure that the staff attend appropriate training).
- Familiarise themselves with the Work Health and Safety Act, 2011 and in particular with those sections relating to employer responsibilities and the powers and rights of health and safety representatives.
- Appoint appropriately trained emergency personnel.
- Address or delegate action to address health and safety issues raised by health and safety representatives.
- Consult with the relevant health and safety representatives, where practicable, on all changes which may affect the work health and safety of staff, students, visitors or contractors.
- Ensure that work health and safety appear on the agenda of departmental or equivalent meetings at regular intervals, at a frequency consistent with the number of hazards and degree of risk.
- Arrange for work health and safety rules to be developed, documented and issued to all staff and where appropriate, student, visitors and contractors.

- Ensure that staff under their control use safety equipment provided when required and in a correct manner.
- Gain a knowledge of employer responsibilities and the powers and rights of health and safety representatives under the Work Health and Safety Act 2011, through attendance at an WHS training course or by other means; and
- Indicate safety compliance as part of staff performance appraisal.

St Basil's RTO STAFF WHO ENGAGE OR MANAGE CONTRACTORS

The WHS Act states that independent contractors and their employees are to be regarded as employees of the organization engaging the independent contractor in terms of responsibility for work health and safety. St Basil's RTO staff who engage or manage contractors are therefore responsible for the health and safety of the contractor and the contractor's employees, in relation to all matters over which St Basil's RTO controls.

St Basil's RTO STAFF THAT ENGAGE OR MANAGE CONTRACTORS MUST ENSURE THAT:

- Contractors and their employees receive a site-specific safety induction which includes St Basil's RTO's emergency response and incident reporting procedures and information on site specific hazards.
- The equipment and material used by contractors is safe and is used in a manner that does not pose a risk to the contractor(s) or to St Basil's RTO staff, students and visitors.
- The contractors are not exposed to health and safety risks arising out of the activities of St Basil's RTO.
- The contractors use appropriate personal protective equipment and safety equipment at all times.
- The contractors use safe work methods at all times.
- All contractors have statutory compensation and liability insurance.

- Consuming or storing food and drink in only those areas designated.
- Being familiar with emergency and evacuation procedures and the location of, and if appropriately trained, in the use of emergency equipment.

SAFETY OFFICERS

Management is responsible for appointing a suitable safety officer for the areas under their control. The safety officer is deemed to be the employer's representative (as required by the WHS Act) at the local level. Safety Officers should be free to devote as much time as necessary to work health and safety matters. All staff should have direct access to their safety officer.

The main role of a safety officer is to act as a local point for all work health and safety matters arising at the particular location. Carrying out the role involves:

1. Identifying hazards and making recommendations to eliminate or reduce risks associated with those hazards.
2. Providing advice on local work health and safety matters and obtaining advice on areas outside their expertise from WHS or other sources.
3. Bringing to the attention of work health and safety hazards associated with their work.
4. Monitoring health and safety standards and compliance with WHS rules, policies and procedures.
5. Bringing to the attention of Management unresolved work health and safety matters.
6. Investigating and reporting on all incidents, injuries and work health problems and notifying WHS of incidents and hazards in line with reporting requirements.
7. Assisting with the promotion of work health and safety awareness.
8. All accidents or near occurrences must be reported. An Incident Report Form must be completed and submitted to the College Manager in the case of an injury or near miss occurring. Any staff member of St Basil's RTO or student can fill this form.
